Dear Friends and Neighbors,

So many of you have depended upon me to provide you with the very best in market knowledge and guidance as you buy or sell your properties.

After many years as a full time real estate professional, I have decided to join NRS Referral Services, LLC. In my new role, I can provide you with a personal recommendation for a Realtor I am confident will continue to offer you the highest level of guidance throughout this process.

Navigating the real estate market is complex, especially in today's economy. As in the past, I want you to be completely confident in the Realtor you work with. Real estate investment decisions are far too important to you and your family to choose an unknown agent.

Give me a call at any time. Whether it's across town or across country, I can quickly connect you with an experienced agent we can both trust to provide you with the level of outstanding service you've grown to expect.

I look forward to talking with you soon.

Regards,
